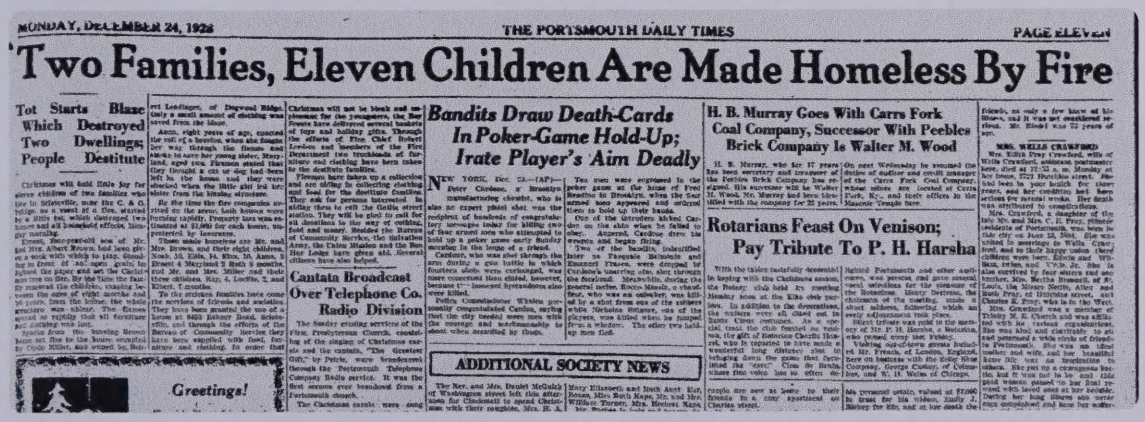
Christmas House Fire



MONDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1928 THE PORTSMOUTH DAILY TIMES PAGE ELEVEN

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, had been given a stick with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate, he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family rescued the children, causing between the ages of eight months and 16 years, from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Besides from the burning frame home set fire to the house, occupied by Clyde Miller, and owned by Robert Ledinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Aunt, eight years of age, carried the rail of a burning, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister, Mary-land, aged two. Firemen stated that they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were elevated when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each home, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children, Noah, 16, Ellis, 14, Rhea, 10, Anna, 8, Ernest 4, Maryland 2 Ruth 8 months, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children, Ray, 6, Loretta, 2, and Albert, 7 months.

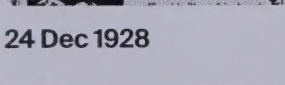
To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a home at 8403 Rahser Road, Sciotville, and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community Service they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Red Feasts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Lovelace and members of the Fire Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are adding to collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Maiden and the Sun Star Lodge have given aid. Several others have also helped.

Cantata Broadcast Over Telephone Co. Radio Division

The Sunday evening services of the First Presbyterian Church, consisting of the singing of Christmas carols and the cantata, "The Greatest Gift," by Petrie, were broadcasted through the Portsmouth Telephone Company Radio service. It was the first service ever broadcast from a Portsmouth church.

The Christmas carols were sung



Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardone, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Reacho in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardone on his side when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his revolver and began firing.

Two of the bandits, identified later as Pasquale Bonasio and Emanuel Frasco, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Missio, a bystander, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Schiavo, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two holdup men fled.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frey, prominent residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 12, 1891. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and Wilbert, twins, and Wells Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brannock, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Frey, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Frey, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with the various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends in Portsmouth. She was an ideal mother and wife and her beautiful home life was an inspiration to others. She put up a courageous battle, but it was not to be and the good woman passed to her final reward with loved ones at her bedside. During her long illness she never once complained and bore her suffer-

Merle Cooper, 20, popular South Portsmouth young man, was accidentally shot and killed by a companion while hunting at Buck Hollow, of Springville Hill.

The home of Squire Alfred Cooper at McCullough was entirely destroyed by fire.

A big section of the north wall of the Jones building ruins on Chillicothe street gave away and fell with a resounding crash during a violent blizzard which visited the city.

Charles Hall was chosen as president of the Bricklayers Union.

Family Grateful For Aid After Home Burned

Albert Brown and family whose home was recently destroyed by fire are very grateful to the firemen and all who helped them during their misfortune. Kind friends and neighbors and other philanthropic people who heard of their sad plight sent donations of money, clothing, groceries and furniture to the stricken family so their Christmas could be made as happy as possible under the circumstances.

Brown, who is a hard working man is the father of eight children all under sixteen years of age. The firemen and friends are trying to raise enough money to build a little home to replace the one that burned and any who are interested or who want to help in this good work may notify the Gallia street engine house. Any kind of a donation will be acceptable.

Kuhn New President Of B'nai B'rith

Election of officers featured the regular meeting of B'nai B'rith Thursday night of the Jewish Temple. The installation will be held on the second Thursday in January with a grand lodge officer in charge of the ceremonies. A buffet lunch will be served at this meeting.

The election resulted as follows: Louis Levi, member; Sidney Kuhn, president; Henry Atlas, vice-president; Ben Hister, financial secretary; Ben Copelan, recording secretary; Sidney Braun, treasurer; Louis Glick, warden; Harry Kerr, guardian; J. B. Bradtmon, assistant guardian; A. Schapiro, Move Lehman and Fritz Haas, trustees; Louis Levi, delegate to district grand lodge; William Atlas, alternate. The district grand lodge meeting will be held in Akron in June.

Only Short Detour On Scioto Trail

Local motorists will welcome the announcement that the long detour around the fire mile stretch of paving north of Circleville has been reduced to a very short detour that rejoins the Scioto Trail at South Bloomfield. With this detour the trip to Columbus is only about a mile and a half longer than the Trail.

For some distance traffic is being permitted to use the concrete here, the detour beginning at a new bridge over a large creek around miles north of Circleville.

BROWN Janie memory card

Memory card for death of Janie Brown

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings, People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families in Sciotoville, near the C & O bridge , as a result of a fire started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes, and al household effects Monday morning.

Ernest, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family moved the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years, from the house the whole structure was ablaze. The fire spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller and owned by Robert Lodinger (sic?) of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, [coated?] the roll of a [berolore?sic] , when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated that they though a dog or cat had been left in the house and were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the burning structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their eight children, Noah 10, Ellis 14, Elza 10, Anna 8, Ernest 4, Maryland 2, Ruth 4 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children Ray 4, Lucille 2, and Elbert 7 months.

To the strike families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Rd. , Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community Service they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the children, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief, Robert [Leelon sic?] and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up collections for the destitute families. They ask that persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia St.Station. They will be glad to call for donations in the way of food, clothing or money.Besides the Bureau of Community Services, the Salvation Army, and the Ben Hur Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Family Grateful for Aid After Home Burned

28 December 1928 page 14 The Portsmouth Daily Times

Transcribed by Rita B Brown 28 Sep 2017

Albert Brown and family whose home was recently destroyed by fire are very grateful to the firemen and all who helped them during their misfortune. Kind friends and neighbors and the philanthropic people who heard of their sad plight sent donations of money, nothing, groceries and furniture to the stricken family so their Christmas could be made as happy as possible.

Brown, who is a hardworking man, is the father of eight children all under sixteen years of age. the firemen and friends are trying to raise enough money to build a little home to replace the one that burned and any who are interested or who want to help in this good work may notify the Gallia Street Engine House. Any kind of donation will be acceptable.

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Hello Rita and family just wrote as I have to Arlen so bad I can't hardly do any thing but thank you for my Gift and letting me hear from you. Dad has called me twice on the phone since I been sick I went to the Hospital the first day of October and was there 20 days. Liz came from Baltimore Maryland and stayed almost 2 Weeks. Merkie came to stay a week and Ruth came Betty they all tried to do what they could. Johnnie had Ralph Ezra all came so I thank God that I still have Aunt Hardy & Aunt around. Can't eat a Meal 1/17 pound but so thankful I can stay by my self now. I can't write my hand and arms shake so to thank you all tell your husband and Children I love all and pray for me I pray every night for all God bless. Keep all safe With love and a Prayer Grandma Branch

5 SONS IN WAR FROM ONE HOME AT SCIOTOVILLE

Trio Selects Navy, One In Army Air Corps, 4 Out Of States

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U. S. navy, one in the army signal corps, and one in the army air corps, with service records ranging from four to 33 months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the navy in October, 1941, even before Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1943, he was aboard tanker when it was sunk in the Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November when another tanker was struck while he was among her crew. The second tanker was not destroyed but had to be brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, Va., and was graduated as a welder. Recently he sailed on a new ship from New York his parents learned, and is again on the high seas.

The second son Ralph Earl Brown, shipfitter second class, volunteered for navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After 21 days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he has received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaneohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. At that time his postoffice address was changed, and he has not been able to tell his parents his exact whereabouts, although he is in the South Pacific area.

Sgt. Ern E. Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the signal corps at Ft. Ord Calif. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned to overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk La. His wife is with him in California.

Only flying member of the family is Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who recently was promoted to the rank of sergeant at his base in England. A tail gunner on a Flying Fortress, he doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for 17 months, having been graduated from Jonesboro college, Ark., and receiving training at Orlando, Fla., before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charleston, S. C., on an LSM. A fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek Va., and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown, and their four children, reside at 6444 Gallia st.

All Born In Sciotoville

All Ernest and Ralph, the two oldest of the five, were born in Kentucky, but the others were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High school, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Proud of the fact that she has contributed five boys to Uncle Sam's fighting forces

"Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire"

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ellis, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. [not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old] ***

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the house of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Reading in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Franca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massie, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Sulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two holdup men fled.

H. B. Murray Goes With Carrs Fork Coal Company, Successor With Peebles Brick Company Is Walter M. Wood

H. B. Murray, who for 17 years has been secretary and treasurer of the Peebles Brick Company has resigned. His successor will be Walter M. Wood. Mr. Murray had been identified with the company for 22 years. On next Wednesday he assumed the duties of auditor and credit manager of the Carrs Fork Coal Company, whose mines are located at Carrs Fork, Ky., and their offices in the Masonic Temple here.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all diked out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Hansel, who is reported to have made a lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

friends, as only a few knew of his illness, and it was not considered serious. Mr. Riedel was 73 years of age.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:35 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brownell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Pray, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with its various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friend-

BACK

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
